

Great St Mary's eMag

1 -15 November 2024: Issue 162

From the Vicar : All are welcome

The autumn at Great St Mary's is always filled with a rich variety of special Sunday Services, which started with our patronal festival on September 8th, when we also blessed the bicycles.

This year has been even more diverse than usual, with the licensing of Revd Ally and the commissioning of the Bishop's Officer for the Homeless, Kristian Hewitt, who then returned to preach for Homelessness Sunday two weeks later. This was followed by civic occasions such as the Chevin Sermon, when we also celebrated our Harvest Festival, and the High Sheriff's Justice Service. As we move into November, we will celebrate All Saints and All Souls on November 3rd, the latter with the Duruflé Requiem in a Eucharist for the Commemoration of the Faithful Departed. A week later we host the Remembrance Sunday Service for the City and the University. And this term, two stimulating university sermons in Great St Mary's, which provide inspiring food for thought. There are, of course, 'regular' services, such as the 8am Holy Communion, Choral Evensong and our mid-week worship ranging from the ARK communion service to silent meditation group in Michaelhouse; the mid-week communion service and Choral Evensong.

I have named these different types of services as they reflect the diverse communities Great St Mary's is called to serve, with its regular congregations of people who in themselves bring together people from different walks of life and countries, old and young. Each autumn, new people come to join us, and we are delighted to welcome them.

I have now been the vicar of Great St Mary's for just over a year, and I continue to be amazed and excited by the people who are part of Great St Mary's, as members of our congregations, the University, the wider community and our visitors, who come into our buildings to pray, seek a place to rest or to enjoy the beautiful historic spaces. By being open seven days a week, in the centre of Cambridge, we offer something very important and unique – a place where people encounter God.

The PCC has started to address the question 'As generous and visible people of Jesus Christ, who are we called to serve at Great St Mary's? Who are we serving well? Where could we do better? Who are we missing? In January we will spend a Saturday at a PCC away day to work with these questions, identify a vision and priorities for the years ahead. If you have any thoughts on these questions, which you would like to feed into the process, please speak to any of our PCC members, clergy or email us. We would love to hear from you.

In this eMag, I'd like to especially draw your attention to the Pastoral Care section, which has been updated and includes information about our 'Intercessors at home' and how to ask for prayer, confidentially, for yourself and someone dear to you. We are grateful for their faithful ministry of prayer supporting individuals and the life of our church.

With my thanks and best wishes,

Jutta

PARISH GIVING SCHEME

A heartfelt thank you to all who support Great St Mary's with their time, talents and money. Your generosity enables us to thrive as a church, be an inclusive Christian presence in the centre of Cambridge and for the University and to serve our parish and wider community. In the last year we have invested in building up our music department, our clergy team and children's and youth ministry. Great St Mary's has a special calling to serve and connect people in this city as we witness to the good news of Jesus Christ amidst the many challenges faced by our society and the world.

We rely heavily on the regular giving and one-off donations of our members and friends to be able to offer high quality worship, pastoral and spiritual care, and hospitality to a wide range of people.

I want to repeat my thanks to everyone who is supporting us so faithfully and generously. If you are new to Great St Mary's or want to start giving to Great St Mary's, please do not hesitate to talk to the church wardens, or in particular Andrew Watson (assistant church warden), or the clergy about how best to do that. Or email admin@gsm.cam.ac.uk.

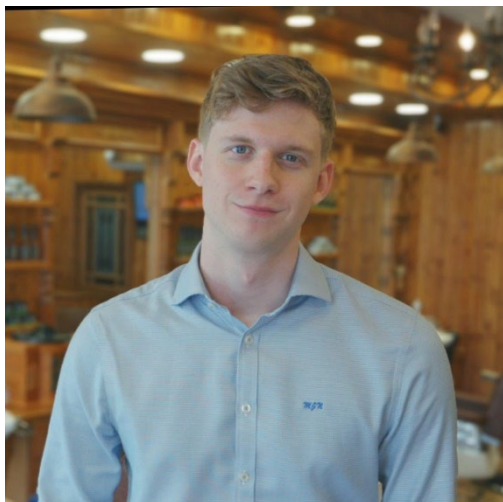

For taxpayers, the most efficient way to give regularly is through the 'Parish Giving Scheme', which was introduced to Great St Mary's a few years ago. It is very easy to join and to make any changes, and the gift aid is administered by the scheme on behalf of our church.

We are in the process of setting up a new 'stewardship team', who will reach out to members of the congregation with information about how to support Great St Mary's financially, and also with their time and talents.

Revd Canon Jutta Brueck, Vicar

Welcome new ordinands

We are pleased to welcome Amelia Turncliffe and Matthew Norman, ordinands from Westcott House and Ridley Hall, who are on placement with us at Great St Mary's. As part of their academic work these ordinands may be required to write written reflections on their contextual experiences and may choose to reflect on experiences gained at Great St Mary's. The work will be marked and seen only by examiners. All names and identifying details will be changed in the written work. If you have concerns about this or would rather that they didn't reflect on any encounter with you, please contact the student and/or their supervisor, the Revd Ally Barrett, at allyb@gsm.cam.ac.uk

Hi, I'm Matt! I grew up in a British-South African family and have spent the last few years running a small software company in Twickenham, West London. I felt called to ministry from a young age, and after a journey of prayer and discernment, I'm now training for ordination at Ridley Hall. I'm passionate about theology, particularly the works of C.S. Lewis, Michael Heiser and NT Wright, and I love engaging with apologetics. My wife, Chairin, and I have two young children - Jacob (2yrs) and Lily (4mths). Chairin is South Korean, and we met through a common interest in ministry in Japan. We're excited to be part of the Great St Mary's community and we are looking forward to the year ahead!

Hello, I'm Amelia! Pleased to meet you all at GSM. I am in my first year at Westcott House, having moved with my husband Tom in September from London, we are just getting used to living in Cambridge. Prior to becoming an ordinand, I worked for the National Church Institutions for six years, having completed two theology degrees at the University of Edinburgh and Union Theological Seminary in New York City. Apart from an interest in theology and all things churchy, I enjoy theatre, reading fiction and exploring the world. I especially love meeting people for a chat over a cup of tea and some cake, and hope I can get to know lots of you over the next year.

Adèle Regan

Due to a change in Adele's personal circumstances she will be moving to Essex at the beginning of November. Therefore, she is unable to continue working for Great St Mary's in her roles as children's and youth minister and choir steward. Her last Sunday with us will be 3 November. In the short time Adèle has been with us, her work as choir steward and in ministry with children and young people have been very effective and much appreciated. We are very sorry to say goodbye to her and wish her every blessing for the future. Please do keep her and the team in your prayers.

Pastoral Care

A message from Canon Jutta Brueck. If you would welcome the opportunity to have a confidential conversation please do not hesitate to email me on juttab@gsm.cam.ac.uk or leave a message with the parish office on 01223 747273. Members of the clergy team are always glad to visit members of the church family in their homes, to talk about their faith, to pray with them (especially when they are ill), to be a listening ear, and a comfort in sorrow. Email Shirley ssh49@gsm.ca.ac.uk

Intercessors at Home

The Home Intercessors are a group of appointed people who each are prepared to faithfully commit themselves to praying (individually at home) for particular requests, in absolute confidence. If you would like to be added to their prayer list, please let one of the clergy know, or put the request in writing to clergy@gsm.cam.ac.uk.

If the request is for another person, then please ensure the person has given their permission for their situation to be shared with others in this way. We are very happy to receive requests which have been anonymised, so if you would like prayer, but rather not share your name or the name of the person being prayed for, this will also be possible.

Revd Canon Christine Farrington

The Revd Canon Christine Farrington, has died at the age of 82. She was an assistant minister at Great St Mary's and then Vicar of St Mark's, Cambridge, Chaplain of Wolfson College, and a Chaplain to the Queen. She was an Hon. Canon of Ely Cathedral and joint director of ordinands and director of women's ministry for the Diocese of Ely. Christine was one of the first women to be ordained in 1994 and preached at a special service in Salisbury Cathedral in 2004 to celebrate ten years of women's ministry as priests in the Church of England, attended by more than 100 women priests from Wiltshire and Dorset.

Year's Mind

Almighty and eternal God, from whose love in Christ we cannot be parted, either by death or life: hear our prayers and thanksgivings for all whom we remember this day; fulfil in them the purpose of your love; and bring us all, with them, to your eternal joy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Service

Thank you - Ride & Stride

Tom Culver reports: On 14 September several of us took part in the Cambridgeshire Historic Churches Trust Ride & Stride to raise money for the Trust and for GSM. Thanks to the generosity of our sponsors we collected £598, half of which comes back to GSM. Basically we did it in two groups: the cyclist and the striders. I was the rider and the only one because my friend from London who usually does the ride with me had hurt her ankle and couldn't ride. In the past we have had as many as 20 cyclists and maybe next year we will have more. The three striders went together around some 21 city centre churches and chapels. They had a really good time. They finished at St. Peters and had tea at the cafe at Kettles yard.

Eco Tip - How Christians can get involved from home with UN conferences this autumn

A new guide explaining how Christians can get involved in the United Nations Biodiversity Conference (COP16) and the UN Climate Conference (COP29) has been published by the Church of England.

COP16 is being held in Colombia from 21 October - 1 November and COP29 is being held this year in Azerbaijan, from 30 November to 12 December.

The online guide includes information on what will happen at the conferences, how the Church of England is getting involved and what you can do from home to support. Read more.

Fiona Dobson, Senior Advocate in the RSPB's Global Policy Team reports directly from Cali, Colombia at COP16. She talks about the need for action at this year's UN international biodiversity conference in its final week. Fiona was one of the speakers for our Lent talks on 'Good Stewardship of the Environment'.

Wanted - Music Stewards

Could you be a Music Steward?

Great Saint Mary's Church is recruiting music stewards to chaperone our children and young people at choir rehearsals and services.

Stewards are responsible for signing children in and out of rehearsals, overseeing children during breaks, and being an adult presence in services. Stewarding is a great way to get involved in and make a valuable contribution to our church community. Choir rehearsals/services take place on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Sundays. We are particularly keen to hear from people who are free on Thursdays and Sunday mornings. Following a brief informal interview and safeguarding checks, Choir Stewards receive an initial basic training and sign up for shifts as and when they are free. Stewarding can be undertaken on a volunteer or paid basis. The rate of pay is £12.00 per hr.

To receive further details and apply, please contact the Director of Music, Alex Berry alex@cam.ac.uk

Christmas Cards and Lap Quilts

Yes, it's that time of year again when cards, supporting the GSM Christmas charities, will be on sale at coffee after the 10am service starting on 3 November. To make life easier, the price remains at £2.50 per pack of 5 and last year we were able to pass on £150, which was a splendid result. Proceeds will support Jeel Al Amal School in Bethany.

On Sunday 17 November, Anne Culver will be selling lap quilts in Michaelhouse at coffee time. The quilts are hand made patchwork. They cover the lap and knees, very cosy when one is reading or watching television. Each one is different in design and colours and they are wadded for extra warmth. The suggested price is £25, all money raised will go to GSM funds. The quilts make ideal presents!

Bookstall

Thank you to all who support the two bookstalls, either by purchasing books or by donating them. Sales have been buoyant over the summer, but we have now reached a crisis point: I have no more paperback novels to put out! (This despite having brought back hundreds from the cottage which I am selling in Wiltshire and having trawled church fêtes for their 'left overs'). So do please see if you can bring anything in (paperback novels preferred) and just pop them into the box by the bookstall in the narthex.

All proceeds support the roof repair fund.

Book launch - Little St. Mary's, Cambridge

One last time, one last line.

In response to an emergency appeal for help with charities, John Bowker*, in his 90th year, has written one last book. He is the author and editor of more than 40 books, including The Oxford Dictionary of World Religions. The new book is called Learning to Live, Learning to Love. It looks at how basic questions (Who am I? How and what am I?) have been answered in the past and are being answered now in the digital age of computers, computational cognition and AI. What light does this throw on Christian belief and understanding?

There is to be a book-launch and a book-signing on Monday 4 November at 5.30pm in the Parish Centre, Little St Mary's Church, Cambridge. The sculptor, Helaine Blumenfeld (whose work illustrates the book) will also be there. It is the occasion of the annual Michael Ramsey lecture, and John Bowker will give a short introduction to the book which costs £10. The cost of the book has been paid, so ALL money will go to the charities. There will be refreshments, and you will be most welcome to come.

Enquiries about the purchase of the book should be made to the Office at office@lsm.org.uk

*Rev'd Professor John Bowker is the former Dean of Trinity College Cambridge.
